

Position Title: CAREGiver

Terms of Employment: Part-time, Casual

Job Description:

With a career as a CAREGiver at Home Instead Senior Care, you can help families by offering individualized care for their aging loved ones. You'll share your unique talents and experiences to help seniors stay independent at home, instead of anywhere else.

Whether you take pride in cooking or baking for family, carpooling for your kids' sports teams or providing TLC for a sick friend, your experience and skills can help an older person remain living at home. If you are reliable, caring and compassionate, you can enhance the life of a senior and their family.

Home Instead Senior Care commits to ongoing skill development of our staff by providing paid training and ongoing support. Daytime, evening, overnight and weekend hours are offered. Group medical benefits with employer contributions are also available.

Learn how a career with us can be much more than just a job. Home Instead Senior Care: To us, it's personal.
