

Job Posting June 2018

The Deanery Project is an environmental and arts learning centre located on the Eastern Shore. We provide education and tools to strengthen communities and the environment through innovative, hands-on programs in permaculture, the arts, natural building, restorative forest management, food sovereignty and healthy living choices.

We are seeking a versatile, energetic staff member as Summer Events/Gardens & Trails Programmer. To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume and 2 references to:

shipharbour.thompson@gmail.com

For more information on these positions, call 902-845-1888 or email: thedeaneryproject@gmail.com website: www.thedeaneryproject.com

POSITION: Summer Events & Gardens Programmer (STUDENT)

Focus: Gardens & Programming

Type: 35 hr/wk x 8 weeks @ starting wage $12/hr.

Organization: The Deanery Project

Location: 751 West Ship Harbour Rd. Lower Ship Harbour

Start date: June 18, 2018

Student Tasks and Responsibilities

- Work closely with Deanery Project staff to develop and deliver a slate of integrated summer environmental programs
- Assist with the Seed to Soup Initiative
- Work with community members to plant, maintain and harvest on site gardens
- Care for tree nurseries.
- General lawn & ground maintenance
- Develop Seed Exchange Library
- Work with other staff to develop and deliver forest and garden programming
- Develop trails and interpretive zones along the trails.
- Assist with related building projects such as construction of raised garden beds
- Attend weekly staff meetings
- Learn and maintain safe work habits while on site
- Keep a daily journal of activities.
- Participate in and assist with other on site projects as needed
- Complete police and vulnerable sector checks
- Maintain common staff and Deanery spaces in good order

Qualifications/Assets

- Experience with gardening and cooking
- Live on the Eastern Shore
- Have access to a vehicle
- Computer literate especially with Word, Excel and Google Drive
- Strong communication skills
- Self-starter who is comfortable working in a team environment