Job Description

Are you an experienced respiratory therapist who is tired of shift work? Want to get away from working nights and weekends? Do you want to be your own boss and run your own clinic? Then you need to talk to Manpower today!

On behalf of our client, a leader in home healthcare, we are hiring for a permanent respiratory therapist based in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. This is an exciting opportunity that would offer you the chance to essentially manage and operate your own private clinic. In this role, you will use your clinical skills to assess, educate, and initiate therapy, and provide ongoing follow-up to the patients as needed. You will also use your strong customer service skills to promote and sell services and recommend products to your clients.

You will bring the following skills and experience to this role:

- * Current respiratory therapist registration - 2 years of related experience is preferred
- * Clean criminal record and a clean driver's abstract along with a valid driver's license
- * Excellent customer service, computer, organization, and interpersonal skills
- * Ability to work on-call hours as required
- * A commitment to client and organizational safety

This role will offer you the following perks:

- * Competitive salary based on experience
- * Excellent benefits package
- * Company pension program after one year
- * Company vehicle provided
- * Employee Assistance Program and Education Assistance Program
- * The chance to work in the private sector, have more regular hours, and run your own clinic

If you're a respiratory therapist looking for an exciting new opportunity in a beautiful town, then you need to apply to Manpower today!

ManpowerGroup recognizes the importance of providing an accessible and barrier-free environment.
