Provisional Statement

About Dalhousie University

Dalhousie University is Atlantic Canada's leading research-intensive university and a driver of the region's intellectual, social and economic development. Located in the heart of Halifax, Nova Scotia, with an Agricultural Campus in Truro/Bible Hill, Dalhousie is a truly national and international university, with more than half of our 19,000 students coming from outside of the province. Our 6,000 faculty and staff foster a vibrant, purpose-driven community, that celebrated 200 years of academic excellence in 2018.

Job Summary

Dalhousie Financial Services strives to provide the highest quality financial services and information and ensure the effective stewardship of University assets to the benefit of students and scholarly activities. Financial Services is a core service unit of the University, providing services in areas of financial accounting, budgeting, procurement and risk management, cash management, and financial systems and policies. Reporting to the Manager, Budget Administration, the Budget Analyst is responsible for maintaining and monitoring the Operating budget for the University and provides consultation and support to units in the area of accounting, policy and budget administration.

Key Responsibilities

- Manage annual budget cycle, and act as first line support to budget unit administrators for selected budget units.
- Review budget submissions, mid-year and third quarter projections for accuracy and reasonableness; monitor budgets throughout the year.
- Provide guidance to department heads, administrators and Senior Administrators regarding financial issues.
- Provide ad hoc financial analysis as requested by Manager, Budget Administration, Director of Budgets and Financial Analysis, Assistant VP of Financial Services, or other senior University officials.

- Authorize purchase orders, employment requisitions and facilities work orders on behalf of the Budget Office.

Note

Qualifications

Undergraduate degree (such as Commerce or Business Administration) or MBA, with a concentration in accounting or finance, plus approximately five years' relevant and progressively responsible experience (or an equivalent combination of training and experience), ideally in an academic environment. Professional accounting designation (i.e. CPA) is preferred. Demonstrated ability to handle complex and confidential matters with excellent judgement, discretion and tact and ability to multitask with frequent interruptions. Strong analytical and interpersonal skills, attention to detail in a high-volume environment required. Demonstrated proficiency with advanced Excel.

Job Competencies

The successful candidate is expected to demonstrate proficiency in Dalhousie's core and leadership competencies (<https://www.dal.ca/dept/leaders.html>), in particular:

- Integrity
- Respect & Inclusion
- Knowledge & Thinking Skills
- Communication
- Service
