Who is Business is Jammin'?

Business is Jammin' (BIJ) is a province-wide charitable initiative that strives to build the next generation of leaders. We grow and nurture the minds of Black and racially visible minority youth across Nova Scotia, providing a foundation and helping youth create a life plan. BIJ seeks to expose youth to entrepreneurship, social enterprise, education and personal development through experiential learning. We help grow and foster not only the entrepreneurial mindset but that of intrapreneurs, dreamers who do, and take the initiative to create innovation within their workplace.

Responsibilities

BIJ hosts fun-filled, interactive summer camps where youth have the opportunity to operate their own start-up companies with the goal to develop, fund and implement solutions to social, cultural or environmental issues in their respective communities. As a Camp Counsellor you will be delivering several entrepreneurship workshops to youth, exploring the characteristics of an entrepreneur, techniques for idea generation and engaging creative thinking exercises. You will also be responsible for the safety and supervision of the campers during camps, field trips and outdoor activities. You will have the opportunity to collaborate with community organizations when facilitating workshops and program delivery

Qualifications

- Must have a valid Driver's license and/or access to a reliable vehicle
- Must be a dynamic self-starter who is able to work independently
- Have experience and/or interest working with youth
- Have experience and/or interest in entrepreneurship
- Hold strong verbal and written communication skills & be able to demonstrate excellent project management and presentation skills

Eligible Candidates

- This position is designed for African Nova Scotian, Black, Indigenous or racially visible minority between 15-30 years of age. Please self identify in your cover letter.
- Must be legally entitled to work in Canada

Other Considerations

The successful applicant must provide a criminal record check and child abuse registry check

This position has an anticipated end date of August 30, 2019.

Candidate must take part in mandatory training held June 7 & 8th in Halifax, NS

Business is Jammin' is an equal opportunity employer. We wish to thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
