

Farm Hand

Granview Farms Ltd is a growing Nova Scotia company with over 40 years of market related experience. We are proud to say that we are the premier supplier and distributor of high quality landscape products throughout Atlantic Canada.

We are actively seeking a well-rounded Farm Hand to join our team. The ideal candidate is a team player with vision to collectively work toward long-term goals and has a true understanding of our corporate values. This is an individual who brings relevant industry experience and exhibits strong leadership qualities by means of a result driven work ethic. They will consistently help support farm operations, while actively working with team members from all levels of the company.

Responsibilities:

- Assist with ongoing maintenance of Nursery Sod fields is completed.
- Help operations team in smooth daily product processing and delivery.
- Maintain consistent communication with other company departments.
- Ensure quality standard of product is met through best Agricultural practices.
- Hands on execution of equipment operation and maintenance.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of farm work practices.
- A basic knowledge of product and service delivery.
- Experience operating and maintaining heavy farm equipment.
- Adaptable to working in a fast paced and constantly changing environment.

We appreciate all those who apply and qualified candidates will be contacted in a timely manner.

6706 Old Guysborough Rd., Elderbank, Nova Scotia, B0N 1K0

Please send resume to tammy.hiltz@halifax.ymca.ca
Please include job title in subject line and Grandview