

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Personal Dignity & Worth through Productive Living

Vocational Program Assistant Summer Employment in Day Program

About You

- Aged 17-30 years
- Experience in the helping field an asset

Responsibilities and Duties

- Support adults living with physical and/or intellectual disabilities in a vocational work setting
- Assist in the learning and maintaining of vocational skills
- Effectively communicate with Participants, co-workers, supervisors, management
- Work as part of a team

Work Environment

- Typically requires weekday hours between 8-4pm
- May experience crisis situations, which place the safety and well-being of our staff and participants in jeopardy (severe behaviours, suicide threats and attempts, verbal and physical acting out)
- Work in tandem with Vocational Instructors
- Ability to lift up to 40 lbs in relation to vocational tasks
- May be exposed to bodily fluids, viruses and common illness
- Includes work areas of a greenhouse, kindling barn, wood workshop, kitchen, shredding area, and wipers

Application deadline: May 23, 2019 2pm

Submit your current resume and cover letter to:

Joanne DeLong, Financial/HR Coordinator

Email: jdelong@bonnyleafarm.ca

Minimum Qualifications

- Experience (an asset) working with or supporting people living with physical and/or intellectual disability
- Experience (an asset) developing appropriate relationships in a helping or supporting capacity
- Effective oral and written communication skills
- Suitable Criminal Records Check and Vulnerable Sector Search
- Develop and maintain professional relationships

Compensation

Job Type: Seasonal (35 hours weekly)

Salary: $11.55 /hour

Anticipated Term: July 2- August 27, 2019

Anticipated start date of July 2, 2019

Applicants selected for interview will be contacted by May 27, 2019.

Working at Bonny Lea Farm has given me the ability to experience more than I could have ever imagined from a career.

– Betty-Jo, RC

