

Telehandler Operator / Digital Signage – Labourer

Digital Signage Labourer positions available for digital sign installation across the Province with a veteran owned company. The Digital Signage Labourer will be working with a small team for digital sign installation across multiple locations. Wage is based on experience. Must be a motivated hard worker with the following experience and requirements:

Experience to include:

- Previous construction experience
- Anchoring experience in concrete, drywall, wood (mechanical and chemical anchors)
- Experience fishing cables
- Experience using a telehandler (5-12k capacity)
- Previous experience with main brands of digital signage (Samsung, Prismicview, Nanolumen, Unilumen) an asset
- Experience installing video walls and display mounts an asset
- AV experience in terminating Cat6 and troubleshooting network connectivity is an asset

Requirements:

- Able to work 44 hours a week with possible overtime opportunities
- Able to lift and carry minimum 50lbs comfortably and safely
- Must have a clean drivers record (abstract is a requirement)
- Understanding and commitment to labour code
- Understanding and commitment to company safety policies
- Must be able to pass airport security screening to work in major Canadian airports
- Able to make digital submissions or work digitally with company site-specific and daily site documents
- Experience with Microsoft Teams, Azure, Sharepoint an asset
- Current Telehandler Qualification an asset
- A license and personal pickup truck (1/2 ton) an asset

This is a full-time employment opportunity that is project based. There are positions for a Halifax team starting 17 August, and a Moncton team starting 7 September. Please submit resume to

nina.parker@brigade.construction